June 18, 1984

Dear Mr. Thimsen:

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) periodically asks the States to nominate hazardous waste sites for possible inclusion on the Federal Superfund National Priority List. We have recently submitted a site of interest to you: General Mills, Inc.

We expect that this site will be noticed for public comment to the U.S. EPA in the Federal Register of July of this year.

Sincerely,

Richard R. Ferguson
Hydrologist, Sr./Technical Analyst
Responsible Party Unit
Site Response Section
Division Solid and Hazardous Waste
